263—QUAY COUNTY COURT HOUSE,
TUCUMCARI, N. M.

Built at a cost of $218,000, this four story structure is one of the finest of its kind in the Southwest. The jail on the top floor is approved for Federal prisoners, and is said to be the only one in the entire U. S. equipped with Beauty Rest mattresses. A fine painting and carved panels illustrate the chief industries of Tucumcari—cattle and railroading.
